DEDICATION

Melton R. Sanborn

June 22, 1909 - December 14, 1998

Melton Sanborn was born in Danville and was a life long resident. During his years here he served in many of the Town office positions and the school PTA (including PTA president). The Town office positions he held included: tax collector, road agent, cemetery sexton, cemetery trustee, and Town forester. He also had been very active with the Danville Grange, the Danville Historical Society, the Old Meeting House Association, the Danville Fire Department, and the Rockingham County Forest Fire Warden's Association. He was still the Town's forester when he passed away. Melton was an invaluable resource to those in the Town who sought out information on the Town's history and on life in Danville many years ago. He will be missed by all of us.

SELECTMEN'S MESSAGE

The Selectmen take this opportunity to stress the importance of getting involved with the Town and helping shape what Danville will be like twenty years from now. One person can make a difference. If you don't get involved, the views of a few may determine the fate of the Town.

There were a number of significant issues this year. The first was the findings of the Supreme Court case between Danville and Terra Realty. The court found in favor of Terra Realty and their right to use Tuckertown Road due to a deeded right-of-way associated with their property deed, and the findings that the Town's position of the road being historic and a natural feature was not substantiated. Since the Fall of 1998 the Board of Selectmen have been negotiating an Agreement with Terra Realty concerning the gravel permit conditions. As of Jan. 27th these negotiations are on going.

Another significant issue was the competitive procurement of a new trash/recycling contractor. Waste Management, Inc. was the low bidder and began providing services on Jan. 1, 1999.

A new contract was issued for repair of the Cub Pond dam. Work will begin in the Spring 1999.

Due to State and Federal laws regarding underground storage tanks, the three underground storage tanks behind the Fire Station were removed in Jan. 1999. New above ground storage tanks for heating oil were installed for the Fire Station and Town Hall. New tanks for gas and diesel fuels will be installed in the March/April 1999 timeframe.

Close to $ 1,000,000 Capital Reserve funds in road reconstruction will be needed in the next few years to repair the culvert on Sandown Road, the culvert on Johnson Road, and rebuild part of Pine Street. Partial grant funding from the State has been applied for (decision has not been received yet). If Danville does not repair these roads, the State will downgrade their use within the next five or so years and vehicles such as school buses and trash trucks will not be allowed to cross the culverts on Sandown and Johnson Roads.

The Selectmen have worked to provide the voters with ballot articles on library expansion so that the voters may decide which library expansion alternative they want the Town to pursue. The Board of Selectmen will apply to the Superior Court for a Special Town Meeting in June 1999 to appropriate funds for the alternative selected by the voters.

This was a really busy year for the Town Clerk's office. With the town growing I felt we needed to offer more services. In July we became certified to do transfers and in November we became certified to issue plates from our office. Starting January 4, 1999 we will be begin the new plate issue. We hope all our residents find these new services helpful.

TRUSTEE OF THE TRUST FUNDS – 1998 REPORT

The yield on investments for 1998 was 5.12% on funds in the New Hampshire Public Deposit Investment Pool. There was also a large capital gain in Common Fund #1 due to income from the Vanguard Windsor II Fund in the amount of $2,367.55.

This year there were no new cemetery perpetual care funds established. There were two new Capital Reserve Accounts opened, one for future road construction and the other for the cemetery. The Johnson Road fund received an initial investment of $15,000. The Cemetery Fund received $4,000.

All other funds have been transferred from CD's to the New Hampshire Public Deposit Investment Pool. The NHPDIP invests in US Treasury and US Government Agency obligations and other investments designed to provide protection for each participant to minimize any possibility of loss.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara J. Chalmers, Trustee, Bookkeeper
Patricia Cote, Trustee
Peter Meigs, Trustee

ADD a new ARTICLE XIII, Historic District Ordinance to read:

PREFACE

Danville's Historic District contains the nucleus of the town's earliest settlement as it evolved from the holdings of the King of England in colonial New England. It is a living memorial to those early settlers who harnessed the wilderness to establish their own republic. It is a visual reminder of their hardships and successes. Their commitment to establishing an orderly and beneficial community is evident in the existence of the meeting-house, the burial grounds, the parsonage land to support the ministry, and the roads and trails that wove through the community. This is where they worshipped, governed their town, and buried their dead. The town's first minister was housed here and preached here. The existence of such a nucleus today is rare, is historically significant to the town's heritage, and contributes greatly to the fabric of Danville's uniqueness as a town. It is the intent and purpose of this Article, and the responsibility of the Heritage Commission in administering its provisions, to ensure that this area is preserved and protected for the appreciation and enjoyment by present residents and visitors and future generations.

Danville was known as the Parish of Hawke until a name change was voted in 1836.

Situated in the District on Main Street is the town's first meeting-house, built in 1755 by twenty-seven citizens to serve the settlement's need for religious, social and political purposes. The building was constructed privately and later donated to the town. Today it is recognized as the oldest original construction meeting-house in New Hampshire. The building has been registered with the National Register of Historic Places since 1982. A New Hampshire state historical marker was erected in front of the building in 1996.

A burial ground, dating to 1740 and containing the remains of the town's earliest settlers, leaders and officials, is located across the street north of the meeting-house (one tenth of a mile). Located next to the burial ground is the "Parsonage Land", community land set off soon after the town separated from Kingston. It was an indispensable condition to the license for settlement that a learned and faithful minister should be provided to dispense the Word of Life. Proceeds from the sale of timber on the parsonage land was used to support the minister. To this day this parcel of land is identified and referred to in Danville as "the Parsonage Land." A second public burial ground was established adjacent to the meeting house, with burials dating back to 1825.

Perpendicular to the meeting house and extending westward to the Sandown town line is Tuckertown Road, laid out in 1766 by Hawke's selectmen. History documents that in these times people did not scatter wide upon large plantations, but collected in towns and villages, with their farms lying out around them. To secure constant attendance at meeting, and to prevent danger from Indians by scattering, the General Court of the colonies ordained that no dwelling house should be located more than a mile from the meeting-house. Records and maps confirm the settlers of Hawke relied on this distance issue in their petition to the General Court as justification for being separated from Kingston. Once the parish of Hawke was approved, a village known as "Tuckertown" sprang up along Tuckertown Road over the ensuing twenty years. Sadly, the village was devastated by deaths from a smallpox plague during the winter of 1781-1782. Danville's first and only permanent minister, the Rev. John Page, tended to the ill in Tuckertown, contracted the plague himself and perished in Tuckertown. His body was drawn out from Tuckertown by sled to be buried in the old burial ground on Main Street.

The formation of towns in colonial New England was promoted not only by the dread of, and danger from, Indians, but also by the demand for churches and schools. Sandown was establishing itself as a daughter town of Kingston about the same time as Hawke. Tuckertown Road provided a link between the two towns, as well as a means for Sandown residents to access the new meeting-house in Hawke. Its large size implies that Hawke's meeting-house was built to also accommodate residents of other communities in close proximity. Twenty families from Fremont were granted permission to attend church in Hawke after petitioning the General Court. Unfortunately, the petition was granted one month after the Rev. John Page died in 1781.

A tavern once stood at the corner of Main Street and Tuckertown Road and its cellar hole still exists. Such a tavern location was quite common in colonial times. Historical annals document that many a town meeting was called to order in the meeting-house only to be later adjourned to the closest tavern, where the town's business was completed with the warmth of spirits and fireplaces.

Tuckertown was abandoned after the plague. Although it was used for timber and farm animals, no residences were ever established in the Tuckertown area again. Today, cellar holes, stonewalls, fields and forests line Tuckertown Road on both sides for at least a mile—a reminder of the homesteads of those early settlers who struggled to carve a home in the wilderness and establish this community. The townspeople have voted numerous times to preserve Tuckertown Road; it has been designated closed, scenic and a Class A trail. The nature, appearance, width and general ambiance of Tuckertown Road provides an aesthetic link to 18th century Tuckertown.

Today most of the lands which comprised the original nucleus of Hawke are town-owned and as such provide a nostalgic and historic glimpse for residents and visitors alike into the center of Danville's town origins.

Exceptions are noted in Section XIII B.9.

B. HISTORIC DISTRICT REGULATIONS

1. Authority

Pursuant to a 1995 legislative change in RSA 676:46-a, the Town of Danville, New Hampshire, established a Heritage Commission in 1996, and pursuant to RSA 674:44-b III and RSA 674:46-a V, has granted authority to the Heritage Commission to administer Historic Districts within the Town of Danville. Pursuant to RSA 674:46, the local legislative body has, by this ordinance, established an historic district or districts, sites or locales within the boundaries of the Town of Danville.

2. Definitions

“Building” means any combination of materials, whether portable, movable or fixed, having a roof and enclosed with walls, built to form a structure for the shelter of persons, animals or property.

“Character” Character is what gives a community its identity. It is part imagery, part memory and gathered time, part attitude. Character is found in whatever gives resonance to a place; whatever references the way life has been and is, whatever identifies the community, its history, its resources.

Visual character is determined by distinctive traits, qualities and attributes such as size and mass of buildings, landscaping (i.e., the presence of stone walls or large trees), setbacks, views and architectural style.

“Compatible” means that the structure in question would be similar in size and scale and be constructed of visually compatible materials. Incompatible infill and additions undermine the historical and architectural integrity of the buildings and the neighborhoods in general.

“Excavation” as used in this Article means digging of any type with respect to construction, reconstruction rehabilitation, restoration, soil removal, and any mining of earth, such as graveling and other associated activities (i.e., blasting, screening, hauling, rock crushing).

“Historic” means well-known or important. Something obscure and unknown may be historical but is called historic only if its importance is publicly recognized.

“Historical” means anything that reveals something about the history of a place over time. This “history” begins before a place was settled and continues to the present moment. It is not limited to “important” people or events; it includes the lives of “ordinary” people doing ordinary things—the people and things that collectively contribute to the experience and development of a place.

“Local land use board” means a planning board, historic district commission, heritage commission, building inspector, building code board of appeals, or zoning board of adjustment established by the local legislative body.

“Local legislative body” means the town meeting.

“Preservation” means the act or process of applying measures necessary to sustain the existing form, integrity and materials of an historic property. Work, including preliminary measures to protect and stabilize the property, generally focuses upon ongoing maintenance and repair of historic materials and features rather than extensive replacement and new construction.

“Reconstruction” means the act or process of depicting, by means of new construction, the form, features, and detailing of a non-surviving site, landscape, building, structure, or object for the purpose of replicating its appearance at a specified period of time and in its historic location.

“Rehabilitation” means the act or process of making possible an efficient compatible use for a property through repair, alterations, and additions while preserving those portions or features which convey its historical, cultural, or architectural values.

“Restoration” means the act or process of accurately depicting the form, features, and character of a property as it appeared at a particular period of time by means of the removal of features from other periods in its history and reconstruction of missing features from the restoration period.

“Site” means the location of a significant event, a prehistoric or historic occupation or activity, or a building or structure, whether standing, ruined, or vanished, where the location itself maintains historical or archeological value regardless of the value of any existing structure.

“Structure” means any object constructed or installed by man, including such objects although regulated or licensed by other provisions of law. The term shall not include any man-made stone markers, tombstones, crypts, or other decorative monuments allowed for by vote of the town, or authorized by the town cemetery trustees, any private cemetery association or any private cemetery within the district.

3. Administration

The Danville Heritage Commission shall administer Historic Districts within the Town of Danville in accordance with the authority granted to the Commission pursuant to RSA 674:44-b III and RSA 674:46 by vote of the local legislative body in 1996.

4. Conduct of Business

The conduct of business of the Danville Heritage Commission, including but not limited to meetings, membership, terms of office, vacancies and removal of members, officers and quorums shall be in accordance with the Procedures adopted by the Commission which have been duly recorded with the Town Clerk. Public notification and public hearings of the Commission's actions shall be in conformance with RSA 91-A and other applicable statutory requirements.

5. Powers and Duties of the Commission

In accordance with RSA 674.46, the Heritage Commission shall have the powers and duties to:

- (a) maintain a system for the survey and inventory of historic properties. This survey will be the system for comprehensive historical resources planning with the Town of Danville;
- (b) establish rules and regulations for the conduct of business which are consistent with the purposes of this Article, and in conformance with RSA 673, RSA 676 and RSA 677, and in accordance with RSA 91-A;
- (c) approve or disapprove, in whole or in part, applications for Certificates of Approval for which a permit is required under Section B. 8., and file said Certificate of Approval or Notice of Disapproval with the building inspector following the Commission's findings;
- (d) request reports and recommendations from municipal departments and agencies and from other organizations and sources which may have information or can provide advice pertinent to the application or the proposal's impact on the district;
- (e) retain professional consultants (with the approval of the Board of Selectmen) as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Article, subject to the availability of funds for this purpose;
- (f) act in an advisory role to other officials, agencies, departments, boards, commissions and committees of the local

This lot is identified on the tax books as “original lot #11. The Parsonage Lots were established in keeping with the English governmental requirement that community property be set aside to support the ministry. The building and repair of the first meeting house was made from lumber cut from the town forest. For more than two centuries receipts from the sale of wood have been deposited and used to support the ministry, repair the meeting house, the Parsonage until it became a private residence, and fences about the two cemeteries. Historical documents indicate that another requirement of English government was the building of a mill to provide lumber for the homes of the new settlers. This lot contains an old road leading to the cellar hole of a mill on Lot 1-55. The mill site is approximately 1/8 of a mile down Tuckertown Road from the Meeting House. The lots have been referred to as “the town’s forest” for decades. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS – 1997 REPORT

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of the Board of Selectmen
Town of Danville
Danville, New Hampshire

We have audited the accompanying general purpose financial statements of the Town of Danville as of and for the year ended December 31, 1997 as listed in the table of contents. These general purpose financial statements are the responsibility of the Town's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these general purpose financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The general purpose financial statements referred to above do not include the general fixed assets account group which should be included in order to conform with generally accepted accounting principles. As is the case with most municipal entities in the State of New Hampshire, the Town of Danville has not maintained historical cost records of its fixed assets. The amount that should be recorded in the general fixed assets account group is not known. In our opinion, except for the effect on the financial statements of the omission described in the preceding paragraph, the general purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Town of Danville, as of December 31, 1997, and the results of its operations and the cash flows of its nonexpendable trust funds for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the general purpose financial statements of the Town of Danville taken as a whole. The combining and individual fund financial statements listed as schedules in the table of contents are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the general purpose financial statements of the Town of Danville. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the general purpose financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the general purpose financial statements taken as a whole.

COLBY MEMORIAL LIBRARY – 1998 REPORT

We had another very busy year. We have 271 new patrons. There were 8,221 patron visits and a circulation of 13,945. We added 952 books and 26 videos to the collection.

We purchased a new computer to be used for public access to the Internet. Bell Atlantic donated the telephone line.

Live Free and Read was the slogan for this year's summer reading program. The 85 children who enrolled in the program listened to stories and participated in crafts based on New Hampshire history. Michael Caduto told New England native American stories at our kick-off program and taught us how to perform a Native American dance. In August we had a picnic and awarded certificates and prizes.

For years our library has been overcrowded. We have over 3,000 books in storage at the Town Hall. In 1995 a building study committee was formed to look at sites and to determine the size building that would be needed for a maximum population of 5,500. The committee decided that a 4,000 square foot addition should be built on the current site. This year another library study committee was formed to look at alternative library sites. They agreed with the 1995 study committee that the addition should be built on the current Colby Road site. Plans for an addition are proceeding and include a handicapped accessible, two-level addition with increased parking. Please stop in at the library to see the artist's rendering of the addition.

Thanks to all the people who donated books, videos, magazines, and audios. Thanks to the Friends of the Library for their continued support. They paid for much needed repairs to the copy machine. Special thanks go to Justin Daniels, Weston Forsblad, Ryan Gellespie, and Tim Billbrough who are members of Scout Troop 13 for their help this year with yard work, moving books to the Town Hall and some inside projects.

Library hours are Monday and Tuesday 1-8 P.M., Thursday 11 A.M. To 8 P.M., and Saturday 9:30 A.M. To 1 P.M. Pre-school story times are held on Thursday mornings at 10 A.M. After school story times are held on Wednesdays at 4 P.M.

FIRE DEPARTMENT – 1998 REPORT

This year the department continued to provide continuing education, Emergency Medical Services and Fire Suppression training in order to meet our goals for continuing quality improvement and to ensure that all of our members are trained in the most up-to-date methods available. In addition to the 24-hour EMT refresher course required by all of our EMT Basics and Intermediates every two years, we also provided a 60-hour First Responder class for all interested department members. Nine department members completed the course and are scheduled to take their NH practical exam and the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technician's written exam in January of 1999.

The department participated in a number of "live burn" training exercises where structures were deliberately set on fire and various fire suppression techniques were practiced.

The department provided training in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and the use of the Automatic External Defibrillator (AED) not only to all Fire Personnel, but also to the Danville Police Department.

The fire department also provided over 48 hours of continuing education to all department members in the following areas:

Substance Abuse	Terrorist Training

POLICE DEPARTMENT – 1998 REPORT

1998 was an extremely active year for the Police Department. Our total calls for service were 3,258, up thirty-two percent from 1997. In review, the nature of the calls was quite diverse. One of our primary goals this past year was to focus our efforts on reducing the number of speed offenders reported by residents throughout the town. We established aggressive patrol techniques to target problem areas. This plan, combined with a new Doppler radar that allowed us to double our coverage area, helped account for 859 motor vehicle stops compared to just 437 the previous year. As a result of our motor vehicle activity, we also logged over 80 arrests. I appreciate everyone's effort on keeping us informed. We will continue to monitor traffic flow closely this year as well.

One note I am very pleased to report is a reduction in burglaries. Despite the addition of many new homes and increase in traffic flow, we investigated only 7 burglaries last year. While some other towns were burdened with these types of calls, we were fortunate to deal with such a small number. Again, I contribute our success to added police presence and residents watching out for each other.

We enhanced our community service programs last year by introducing "Project Charlie" to the elementary school. This class taught to all second graders, focused on building their self-esteem and teaching students' methods for dealing with peer pressure. Special thanks go to Wendy Von Zirpolo, Dennis Jacques, Cindy Parsons and Officer Wayne Young for donating their time and making this project such a big success. We hope to make "Project Charlie" an ongoing part of the school's curriculum. We also held a "Kid Care" photo shoot at the Fire Association Hall, providing photographs and fingerprints for over 100 youths.

We continue to seek State and Federal funding through grant opportunities to help offset costs to the town. Last year we received $1500.00 from the Parkland Hospital towards the purchase of an Automated External Defibrillator. Tom Billbrough provided "AED" training for the department and the unit is now in service in our cruiser. Additionally, we received two grants from the New Hampshire Highway Safety Agency to fund "over time" hours in 1999 for D.W.I. and Selective Enforcement patrols.

As always, my sincere thanks to the Board of Selectmen and Budget Committee for their cooperation and assistance in addressing the needs of the Police Department. Special thanks to Leon Buzzell and Jim Machado for all the painting they did in our offices to give them "new life."

Wade Parsons, Chief of Police

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT – 1998 REPORT

The Highway Department has noted the town is still growing.

We had storms in January, February and small ones in March. The June rains made washouts that were repaired. Fall road paving went well. Then we ended the year with the mildest December in years.

Winter is a funny time, we may not have a lot of snow but ice and small storms take twice as long to treat.

Citizens can help by keeping their rubbish barrels and parked cars out of the roadways during storms since both make clearing and salting the streets difficult. Your cooperation with this makes everything run smoothly.

Clyde Goldthwaite
Road Agent

BUILDING INSPECTOR – 1998 REPORT

1998 was still a busy year in Danville, with 67 new homes being built. 1999 will see the completion of the last two exempt subdivisions, and with the Growth Ordinance in place, new housing will start to be considerably less. 1998 was Danville's first full year of collecting impact fees. All permits issued under the Growth Ordinance were subject to the impact fee. In 1998 Danville collected $17,400 in fees. This money will accumulate and will be applied to Danville's portion of our school capital expense to offset our real estate tax.

The break down of the total permits issued is as follows:

New Homes	67	$5,654,350
Additions	15	168,820
Garages	14	195,419
Sheds	15	17,740
Decks	13	23,362
Other	8	52,900

PLANNING BOARD – 1998 REPORT

The Danville Planning Board had another very productive year. 1998 began with updates to the Town's Subdivision Regulations and passage at the Town meeting of an Impact Fee Ordinance. This ordinance will help the Town address some of the costs new development imposes on our school district. Several other smaller zoning changes were also passed at the 1998 Town meeting to eliminate ambiguities in the ordinance.

While the number of subdivision applications that came before the Board was down from the peak seen a few years ago, it continued to be a busy year for the Planning Board. The Board continued its work making sure that the subdivisions that were approved were in the tradition and character of the existing Danville community. The Board also spent a large amount of time in 1998 on updating our Zoning Ordinance once again to help preserve our Town's unique character. This has culminated in the Historic District Ordinance and several other zoning changes that appear on the 1999 Town warrant. We ask for your support on these zoning changes.

In 1999, the Planning Board intends to update our Site Plan Review Regulations. We have received a grant from the Rockingham Planning Commission to help in this endeavor. The Board also plans to update our Town Master Plan during the coming year.

Finally, the Board wishes to thank the residents of Danville for the interest they have shown in Town planning. The participation seen at public hearings continues to grow as does applications for membership on the Board. This involvement is very important as the Town grows.

CONSERVATION COMMISSION – 1998 REPORT

In 1998, the Conservation Commission co-funded and helped produce a Town-wide natural resource inventory of Danville. The inventory was also co-funded through a matching grant from the Rockingham Planning Commission (RPC). The purpose of the inventory was to research and document the existence of wildlife habitat, aquifers, wetlands, flora, fauna and other environmental parameters. RPC produced a written report as well as an aerial photo of the Town and several large maps showing the Town's groundwater resources, contours, wetlands, flood plains and lands of special importance. The inventory will help the town to decide which lands should be protected due to their environmental/recreational significance.

Also in 1998, a private party offered to sell the Town 40 acres of forestland, which abuts Town-owned land, Rt. 111A and Tuckertown Road. Originally offered for sale at $99,900, the Conservation Commission funded an appraisal of the land and was able to obtain a purchase price offer of $43,500. Selectmen subsequently signed a purchase and sale agreement and will fund the purchase primarily through the use change tax money that has accumulated in the conservation fund.

The Conservation commission meets the first Wednesday of each month at 7:30 PM at the Town Hall. Persons interested in being a member should submit a letter of interest to the Selectmen.

HERITAGE COMMISSION – 1998 REPORT

The Heritage Commission completed a number of its long-range projects and launched some new ones this year.

Much time was devoted to the re-drafting of a proposal for the establishment of a Historic District in Danville. This project involved coordination, communication and cooperation among members of the Board of Selectmen, Planning Board, Cemetery Trustees and Old Meeting House Association. Heritage Commission members are grateful for their support, input and guidance. The Commission also retained a title examiner this year to research the history of property being considered for inclusion in the historic district. As a result of that research, the town now has documentation for the proposed district, as well as some newly-discovered information. The historic district proposal, which includes only town-owned properties in and around the area of the Old Meeting House, Tuckertown Road and the Town Forest, was presented at a public hearing before the Planning Board on December 9, 1998 and will be voted upon by Danville residents in March of 1999.

After the Supreme Court's decision in May allowing the use of Tuckertown Road for gravel truck access, the Commission assisted the Selectmen with concerns about the potential for vibration damage to the Old Meeting House from truck traffic. The Commission recommended certain steps for protection of the Meeting House, which were supported by the Old Meeting House Association. The Commission also worked with the NH Division of Historic Resources to provide engineering data to the Selectmen about appropriate vibration levels for historic structures. As a result, steps will be taken to inspect and monitor the Old Meeting House during the gravel project. In September the Commission mailed an open letter to Danville residents explaining the Supreme Court's decision and how the lack of an historic district played a role in the Court's decision.

An inscribed bronze plaque was ordered this year for the Beehive Hut and will soon be mounted on a stone marker at the site. To learn more about this site, Commission members visited Stonehenge in Salem, NH. That visit was helpful in determining an appropriate inscription for the new plaque, which reads: "The Beehive Hut...Unknown age and origin...Similar to structures at America's Stonehenge, Salem, NH."

As part of its ongoing efforts to provide education and information about Danville's historic resources, the Commission began a new project with the Carriage Towne News. Articles of historic interest, authored by various members of the Commission, are published approximately once a month with a logo specially developed by the Commission this year. The newspaper is distributed free to residents of Danville and a number of other local communities. The Commission also continues to display various topics of historic interest on its bulletin board in the waiting area of the Town Hall. Feedback indicates that the newspaper articles and bulletin board are providing enjoyment and education about Danville's heritage to residents and non-residents alike.

The Commission has undertaken the large task of cataloging and organizing the old documents and records at the Town Hall. The goal of this project is to compile an inventory of the records, make them more readily accessible and develop an estimate of how much space is needed to properly store them. Also in the works for the coming year is a project with the school children at the Danville Elementary School.

The Heritage Commission meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 7:30 P.M. Most meetings are televised and we hope you are tuning in when you can. If you would like to join the Commission, please contact the Board of Selectmen. A town Heritage Fund was also established in 1997 if anyone wishes to make a bequest or donation to help further the identification, preservation and protection of Danville's heritage and historic resources.

Danville Heritage Commission

CEMETERY TRUSTEES – 1998 REPORT

The year 1998 brought the cemeteries more up to date than in past years.

We had the Center Cemetery addition cleared and we were able to see how much work we have before us and hope to finalize this project for burial space in 1999. We were able to finish the last area available for burials in the Old Meeting House Cemetery this past year.

During the fall, a major project was started by Exeter Monument Works. The cleaning and fixing of stones in Center Cemetery front section was done. This is a yearly ongoing project with both cemeteries. A section of the Old Meeting House Cemetery is to be started in 1999.

The Trustees met during many weeks in the spring and summer in the cemeteries to measure and begin the mapping process. We had hoped to finalize this project this year but alas it is really a large undertaking. We have most of the Old Meeting House Cemetery done but there are some small areas to finish. We had just started on the Center Cemetery, when the weather closed in on us.

We were able to move and repair the Hearse House at the Center Cemetery to utilize it for storage. This was due to the expertise of our newest board member, Bob Rondeau.

If you are interested in purchasing a cemetery lot, the cost is $200.00 per lot and you can contact any trustee.

We have also attached a copy of the rules and regulations for everyone's information.

In closing, we want to acknowledge the passing of Melton Sanborn in December. Melton was a past Trustee for many years and knew so much. We will miss being able to ask a question or two to someone so knowledgeable about Danville's Cemeteries.

Cemetery Trustees,
Leon Buzzell
Beth Caillouette

ANIMAL CONTROL – 1998 REPORT

1998 has been my first year serving the Town of Danville as head of Animal Control. Our agency received over 300 calls for animal related complaints. Some of the complaints received have included dog bites, loose livestock, and unlicensed animals. The nature of the call can be extremely dangerous due to the unpredictability of the animal or the disease it is suffering from. Southern New Hampshire is still facing a large population of rabid animals, we therefore urge all residents to have their domesticated animals inoculated.

During the past year, this agency has established a twenty-four (24) hour kenneling center for all animals, has pursued an increase in unlicensed dogs to the licensing of dogs pursuant to NH law, and has received a vehicle to respond, which is equipped to handle most common calls.

This year, this agency is hoping to have the van lettered and painted, which will show professionalism to our town, and a rabies clinic to have your animals vaccinated. We are also looking into holding a tattoo clinic for a more permanent identification, and a foster care program for unclaimed Danville strays.

This department appreciates any involvement from the town residents. Please do not hesitate to contact me with questions, concerns or complaints. This has been an enjoyable first year in dealing with your animals. Pam and I are looking forward to 1999 being even better.

RECREATION PROGRAM – 1998 REPORT

Danville Recreation Department offers and/or supports several programs for youths. As the town expands, it is time to expand the Rec programs as well. This can be done only with the help of volunteers donating their time.

Currently, Danville Rec provides opportunities in the following programs: Grade 3 Co-Ed Intramural Basketball, coordination and equipment for teams participating in the Timberlane Grades 4-6 basketball program, Run For Fun Track Meeting for youths ages 6-16, Hershey Track and Field Program, Timberlane Travel Volleyball for middle school age girls, and Adult "pick up game" Basketball. Below is a description of each.

Sponsored by the Danville Rec and hosted at Danville Elementary, third graders are invited to join this intramural program to learn basic basketball skills and scrimmage within their group. Parents volunteer to coach this group, which averages approximately 15 children (and growing). Athletes pay for their own team shirts, which are ordered through the Basketball Programs Coordinator.

Timberlane School District, through the coordination of the high school Director of Athletics, offers a girl's and a boy's basketball program for grades 4-6. The district sponsors this program. Danville Rec coordinates the facilities request to utilize the Danville School gym, coordinates the schedule for facility use by all teams, issues copies of the league and facility rules, coordinates the purchase of team shirts (paid for by the participants), and provides balls for each team. These teams play other teams within the district on Sunday afternoons from December through February, at TRMS and TRHS.

Danville Rec, in association with the other Recreation Departments in the Timberlane District, offers the national program of Hershey Track and Field for youths 9-14. This 6-8 week program holds practices at the TRHS track and helps prepare the athletes for the NH State Hershey Track and Field Meet, held in Rochester, NH each July. Danville initiated this program in the district four years ago, and continues to be a strong supporter in the coordination, coaching and provider of equipment along with Plaistow, Sandown, Atkinson. This program has expanded to cover Kingston and Fremont. Danville has been proudly represented by all the Danville youths participating, and boasts state winners in sprinting events, and a large number of qualifiers for the state finals, as with the other three towns.

As part of preparing youths for this meet, the track coordinators sponsor the Timberlane "Run for Fun" meet for youths ages 6-16. This event has been held for two years, with our largest attendance being 140 youths. Ribbons are awarded to participants. We have been approached by area towns to include their Hershey participants in our 1999 "Run for Fun".

Spurred by the need for a feeder program for the High School Girls Volleyball team, Danville Rec began sponsoring the Middle School aged Girls Volleyball Travel Team in 1997. Danville Rec provides the coaches, the equipment, and coordinates use of the TRMS gym. This travel team is open to youths within the district, but for the 2nd year is predominantly Danville girls. These teams play within the Seacoast volleyball league, playing schools as close as Epping and as far away as Rochester. At the end of season they attend a tournament hosted by the Rochester team.

Danville Rec also offers basketball for adults at Danville Elementary on Thursday evenings. Rec coordinates use of the facility, a sign in sheet attendance, and equipment. This is a walk-in program and teams are determined each evening of play.

Danville Rec would like to expand their programs to cover preschool programs, summer activity day camps, outdoor volleyball leagues at our newest park, adult and senior programs such as quilting clubs, museum trips, etc. Due to the constraints of volunteers to coordinate such programs, and budgetary constraints, these projects remain in planning stages only. Danville Rec is willing to entertain ideas for expansion in all areas, and would like to develop positions for coordination of these events by volunteers.

Our programs are small, but successful, with room for growth as Danville grows.
